

DIE SABBATI.

SEPTEMBER, 24. 1642.

Hereas, this Kingdome and Common wealth hath beeene put to a great and vast Charge by Delinquents and an ill affected Partie which if it be not discharged by them and their Estates, must necessarily lye as a Burthen upon the good Subjects that have no way deserved it. It is therefore thought fit and ordered by the Commons assembled in P A R L I A M E N T, That the Houses of Delinquents or ill affected Persons shall not be plundered, pulled downe or destroyed; but reserved for the benefit and advantage of the Commonwealth, they being now considered rather as the Houses of the Commonwealth then of Delinquents; and accordingly to be so preserved, as they yeeld more profit and advantage to it.
